The fatal disease of the Ummah... the cancer of the military and Typhoid of secularism

By:

Sheikh Abu AbduliLah Ahmed Al-Jijeli

- may Allah preserve him –

Finally, what had been excepted occurred, and the military turned against the choice of the Muslim Egyptian people, by a global complicity, under the leadership of America, which is afraid for the security of Israel, and regional, under the leadership of the Al Salul (Saud) kingdom, Jordan, Emirates, who are afraid that the wind of revolution and the breeze of freedom reach the streets of Riyadh, Amman and Dubai.

The Egyptian army committed the folly of turning against the popular revolution, with an exposed cover, and a symphony that was played in the streets of the Algerian capital 22 years ago, so they pushed parasitic groups that benefited from the previous situation with complicity of the Copts, to suggest to the world that president Mohammed Morsi is popularly rejected, to justify their coup, what the Tawagit of Egypt forgot is that the Tawagit of Algeria to this day are paying the price of that folly.

The coup of the military against the popular revolution in Egypt, reflects the their ignorance of the universal laws, and their disrespect for the will of the Arab peoples who longing to liberate from the rule of the republican and royal dictatorships, that humiliated the dignity of the people and killed their will and strangled their breaths, and put pressure on them until their burst in their faces, and overthrow the Tawagit in the region.

The one who follows the statements of the leaders and heads of the Western and Arab states and the United Nations secretary-general Ban Ki Moon, realizes the complicity of the global system – that dominate the fate of the weak peoples – with the military, in plundering the freedom of the Muslim Egyptian people, when not even one capital denounced the betrayal of the military to its people, and their seizure of power by tanks, on the contrary, congratulations came to the putschists from Washington to Riyadh, like they are repeating the saying of the people of Lot peace be upon him: (Drive them out of your city: these are indeed men who want to be clean and pure!) 28 Surah Al-Araf.

And the statement of Ban Ki Moon was considered signing on a white sheet for the putschists, when he said: “Many Egyptians expressed during their protests their deep frustration and extreme fears”, that is about the remnants of the secularists the collaborators with the military, and we ask that criminal, about his opinion regarding the opposite demonstrations, which oppose the coup, who represent many times the demonstration of the corrupts and parasites.

As for the British foreign William Hague he blundered by saying: “The United Kingdom does not support the military interference to end the dispute in a country that is described as democratic, an opportunity has come for Egypt to reach to a democratic future after a long suffering for the Egyptian people for two and a half years”... look how he described the regime as democratic, then he turns against it in the next sentence when he describes the coup as an opportunity for Egypt to reach a democratic future... it is really a weird logic, but that is not strange for a people who believe that one equals three (??!!)

As for the sponsor of oppression, its president didn't hesitate to put pressure on the (democratically elected) Egyptian president when he called him to respond to the will of the demonstrators from the “Folool – remnants of the previous regime” and the Christians, instead of calling this minority to acquiesce to the majority opinion, and does Obama himself accepts that the supporters of the Republican Party demand him to step down? Or is the democracy of the racist West, changes its balance and mood from one spot to another in the world? Or how do we explain the coup against a Muslim president in a Muslim president, and replacing him with a Christian president, despite that the Christians do not represent in Egypt even 10%? Do the Americans accept a Muslim president in America? Even lesser than that do they accept a Christian non-Protestant, a Catholic, president?

The inauguration of a Christian on Muslim Egypt, is a blatant aggression on the feelings of all Egyptians, and even all the Muslims, it is an obvious attempt to isolate Egypt from our Islamic World and Westernize its people from their Islamic incubator, to remain servile protecting the borders of the Zionists, away from the anchor of its cultural progress which represented in Islam as Aqeeda, Sharia, methodology and behavior.

The inauguration of Adly Mansour... the Christian on Muslim Egypt, isn't a coincidence or transient error, but it is a series in a long circle that began in Indonesia then Nigeria, and today Egypt, and thus the crusaders undermined our biggest human reservoir, and if the Egyptians and the Muslims remained silent about this issue and accepted it, then the cross will be raised over every Muslim home, and the inquisitions will be opened for them from Rabat to Indonesia, and the massacres of Burma will be witnessed in Lagos and Cairo.

The Egyptian people in general and its youth who are longing to a decent living, have to refuse its coup and stand in face of the putschists, and shouldn't allow the return of the Folool of Mubarak to government, because that means their return to the darkness of the dungeons and the torture of hard labor.

The nobles of Egypt... its old and young, men and women, and they should be aware that Islam is targeted today, and nothing else...

The nobles of Egypt... its old and young, men and women, if they wanted to live with pride and dignity, they should stand like one man, behind the Islamic project, and declare it an Islamic revolution which its main demand: no living except under the shadow of the Sharia of the Most Merciful...

The youth of Egypt have to know that the cost of transferring the principles to reality is mountains of carnage and seas of blood, because falsehood has to be perished not to have mercy on them, and show the truth to be the truth by cutting the roots of the corrupts not by begging them, and days change, and indeed victory is patience for an hour, and with patience you will be given victory... (And Allah is the master of His affair, but most people do not know).
